INSTRUCTIONS FOR TITLING/REGISTERING WATERCRAFT UNDER THE PROVISIONS SET FORTH IN THE CODE OF VIRGINIA FOR SELF-SERVICE STORAGE

When the owner of a watercraft defaults on a rental agreement at a storage facility, the owner of the facility may follow the procedure outlined below in order to sell the watercraft and recover the cost of the storage.

If the boat has registration numbers assigned by the Commonwealth of Virginia or any other state:

1. The facility owner must notify the last registered owner by certified mail at the address provided by the occupant in the rental agreement or at the address listed on record with the title/registration state if there is no address listed on the rental agreement. If the boat was registered out of state, a copy of the registration record will be required to prove that the correct registered owner has been notified.
The letter must include :
 - An itemized statement of the owner's claim, indicating the charges became due.
 - A demand for payment of the charges due within at least 20 days after the date of the notice.
 - A statement that the contents of the occupant's leased space are subject to the owner's lien.
 - A conspicuous statement that unless the claim is paid within the time stated, the contents will be sold at public auction at a specified time and place.
 - The name, street address, and telephone number of the owner or his designated agent whom the occupant may contact to respond to the notice.
2. Notify any lienholder listed in the official records of the registering state by certified mail that the boat will be sold. This letter must give at least 10 days notice of the proposed auction.
3. Place at least one public auction advertisement in a newspaper in the county/city in which the auction will be held. The ad must state the fact that this is a public auction, the date, time, and location of the auction, and the form of payments to be accepted.

If the boat shows no registration numbers:

If the boat shows no registration numbers, the written notice should be mailed to the occupant as listed in the rental agreement. If neither the owner of the personal property nor the occupant of the storage space can be ascertained, the name of "John Doe" shall be substituted in the proceedings and no written notice shall be required. Only the one newspaper advertisement is required.

Once the auction is held, the disbursements of the proceeds will be divided as follows:

- Up to the first $250.00 will go to the storage facility if the charges are at least $250.00.
- Any remaining monies go toward the pay off of recorded liens on the boat to the extent of the proceeds of the auction so long as the lienholder has replied to the notification. If the lienholder fails to reply to the facility owner within 30 days of the date of the auction, the owner may retain these funds to be applied to any remaining balance due him from the occupant.
- Any remaining proceeds may be applied to the remaining balances at the storage facility including costs incurred to hold the auction.
- Any remaining funds must be held by the owner of the facility to return to the occupant if he/she comes to claim the proceeds.

§ 55-418 Lien

- A. The owner shall have a lien on all personal property stored within each leased space for rent, labor, or other charges, and for expenses reasonably incurred in its sale pursuant to this chapter. Such lien shall attach as of the date the personal property is stored within each leased space, and, to the extent the property remains stored within such leased space, as hereinafter provided, shall be superior to any other existing liens or security interests to the extent of $250, and the lien shall extend to the proceeds, if any, remaining after the satisfaction of any perfected liens and the owner may retain possession of such proceeds until the balance, if any, of such charges is paid.
- B. In the case of any motor vehicle or watercraft which is subject to a lien, previously recorded on the certificate of title, the owner, so long as the motor vehicle or watercraft remains stored within such leased space, shall have a lien on such vehicle or watercraft as provided for herein to the extent of $250. In addition, such lien shall extend to the proceeds, if any, remaining after the satisfaction of any recorded liens and the owner may retain possession of such proceeds until the balance, if any, of such charges is paid.
- C. The rental agreement shall contain a statement, in bold type, advising the occupant of the existence of such lien, and that the personal property stored within the leased space may be sold to satisfy the lien if the occupant is in default.

§ 55-419 Enforcement of lien

- A. 1. If any occupant be in default under a rental agreement, the owner shall notify the occupant of such default by regular mail at his last known address. If such default is not cured within ten days after its occurrence, then the owner may proceed to enforce such lien by selling the contents of the occupant's unit at public auction, for cash, and apply the proceeds to satisfaction of the lien, with the surplus, if any, to be disbursed as hereinafter provided. Before conducting such a public auction, the owner shall notify the occupant as prescribed in subsection C of this section and shall advertise the time, place, and terms thereof in such manner as to give publicity thereto.
- 2. In the case of personal property having a fair market value in excess of $600, and against which a creditor has filed a financing statement in the name of the occupant at the State Corporation Commission or in the city or county where the self-service storage facility is located or in the city or county in Virginia shown as the last known address of the occupant, or if such personal property be a motor vehicle or watercraft required by the laws of Virginia to be registered and the Department of Motor Vehicles or Department of Game and Inland Fisheries shows a lien on the certificate of title, the owner shall notify the lienholder of record, by certified mail, at the address on the financing statement or certificate of title, at least 10 days prior thereto of the time and place of the proposed public auction. If the owner of the personal property cannot be ascertained, the name of "John Doe" shall be substituted in the proceedings hereunder and no written notice shall be required. Whenever a motor vehicle or watercraft is sold hereunder, the Department of Motor Vehicles or Department of Game and Inland Fisheries shall issue a certificate of title and registration to the purchaser thereof upon his application containing the serial or motor number of the vehicle or watercraft purchased, together with an affidavit by the lienholder, or by the person conducting the public auction, evidencing compliance with the provisions hereof.
- B. Whenever the occupant is in default, the owner shall have the right to deny the occupant access to the leased space.
- C. After the occupant has been in default for a period of ten days, and before the owner can sell the occupant's personal property in accordance with this chapter, the owner shall send a further notice of default, by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to the occupant at his last known address. Such notice of default shall include:
